Extension Office to host childcare provider training conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, AUGUST 28, 2016:

NEW BRAUNFELS — The Comal County office of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service is hosting a childcare provider training conference, offering six hours of credit for childcare professionals.

The conference, hosted with the Guadalupe County extension office, will be 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 9, at McKenna Events Center, 801 W. San Antonio St., New Braunfels.

Registration for the conference is $40 by Sept. 1 and $50 afterward. Space is limited to 100 people, so attendees are encouraged to register early; no registrations will be accepted after Sept. 6. Attendees must register by sending the registration form and payment to the Guadalupe County office, 210 E. Live Oak, Seguin. The form can be found at comal.agrilife.org/events. Call 830-62-3440 for more information.

“This conference is a joint effort with Guadalupe County AgriLife, and together our offices are looking forward to helping professional providers better care for our communities’ children while receiving the hours they need to maintain their state license,” said Connie Sheppard, family and consumer sciences agent for the Extension Office.

Sessions at the workshop include “Is It Normal?” and “Discipline and Guidance Strategies.” Resources also will be available from mental health care providers and the Texas Department of Family Protective Services.
