DIY Saturday to focus on exploring, sharing food traditions

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, NOVEMBER 2, 2017:

NEW BRAUNFELS — The next DIY Saturday hosted by the Comal County office of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service will be Nov. 11, focused on exploring and sharing food traditions.

The class will be 9-11 a.m. at the county's Extension Office, 325 Resource Drive, New Braunfels. The cost is $15; supplies will be provided.

“The holidays are a wonderful time for families and friends to share food with each other – and for us to share our own food traditions with other families,” said Connie Sheppard, extension agent for family and community health. “Not only will our instructors share some tasty traditions, but we hope our attendees will come with their own traditions to share, too.”

Attendees should register by calling 830-620-3440. Each class requires a minimum size, so attendees are encouraged to call ahead to make sure it still will be held.

DIY Saturday will not occur in December; the 2018 schedule will begin Jan. 13 with bread baking.
