Extension welcomes children of all ages for ‘Kids Day in the Garden’

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, OCTOBER 5, 2017:

NEW BRAUNFELS — The DIY Saturday series hosted by the Comal County office of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service is taking a brief hiatus to welcome families and children of all ages for Kids Day in the Garden, a free open house featuring storytime, hands-on activities, a hay ride and more.

The event will be 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Oct. 14, at the county’s Extension Office, 325 Resource Drive, New Braunfels. Residents can call 830-620-3440 for more information.

“This is a great opportunity for residents and their children to explore plants and nature through hands-on activities, crafts, cooking, stories and games,” said Connie Sheppard, extension agent for family and consumer sciences. “We’re excited to open our garden and invite the kids and the whole family for books, fairies, hay rides and more.”

The final DIY Saturday of the year will be in November, with the title, “Traditions Start at Home.”
