Early voting begins Monday in primary runoffs

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, MAY 9, 2018:

NEW BRAUNFELS — Early voting in the May 22 party primary runoffs will be next week.

The runoffs – which do not feature any local races but include contests for U.S. House District 21 in both parties, Place 6 of the Third Court of Appeals in the Republican primary and Texas governor on the Democratic side – are the final step in determining who will appear on the November 2018 general election ballot.

Early voting in the runoffs will take place from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. May 14-18 at the following locations, except where noted:

- Comal County Elections Center, 396 N. Seguin Ave., New Braunfels;
- Comal County Goodwin Annex, 1297 Church Hill Drive, New Braunfels;
- Garden Ridge City Hall, 9400 Municipal Parkway, except Monday, May 14, when polls will be open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.;
- Comal County Bulverde Annex, 30470 Cougar Bend; and
- Mountain Valley Middle School, 1165 Sattler Road

Commissioners Court approved the dates, times and locations of the early voting locations; the political parties running the primaries approved the locations for Election Day polling places, several of which have been combined, resulting in fewer voting locations than in the March 6 primary.

The May 22 polling places will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the following locations:

- Precincts 101, 103, 203, 207: Comal County Senior Citizens Center, 655 Landa St., New Braunfels
