Elections Center extends hours for voter registrations

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, OCTOBER 5, 2018:

NEW BRAUNFELS — The Comal County Elections Center will be open late Monday and Tuesday to accept voter registration applications.

The center, at 396 N. Seguin Ave. in New Braunfels, will be open until 7 p.m. both days. Tuesday is the deadline for voters to submit an application if they wish to vote in the November midterm elections.

“We’ve seen heightened interest in these elections and a larger than usual number of registration applications, especially for a non-presidential election year,” said Elections Coordinator Cynthia Jaqua. “In order to make sure everyone who wants to vote gets registered in time, we’re extending our hours of operation.”

Thus far, more than 99,000 Comal County residents are registered to vote in the November election – an increase of nearly 4,000 since the March primaries, nearly 7,000 since the 2016 presidential election and nearly 20,000 since the 2014 midterm elections.

To register, residents must either apply in person at the Elections Office or mail in their application form postmarked no later than Tuesday, Oct. 9. Residents can check their registration status and download application forms from the Texas Secretary of State’s Office website, www.votetexas.gov.

Early voting in the election runs from Oct. 22 through Nov. 2. Election Day is Nov. 6.

Information about the upcoming elections, including sample ballots, precinct maps and polling locations for early voting and Election Day, are available at www.votecomal.com.
