Proclamation

Recognizing October 1-7, 2017 as

Power Up at Your Library Week

WHEREAS, Texas libraries help support the incredible innovation and creativity that is a natural asset to the people of our state; and

WHEREAS, Texas school, public and university libraries serve millions of Texans and promote learning, business and entrepreneurship, innovation, workforce development, and much more; and

WHEREAS, the staff of the Bulverde/Spring Branch and Tye Preston Memorial libraries have the potential to transform lives; and

WHEREAS, libraries are places where the cultivation of ideas happens, and people are encouraged to make big dreams a reality; and

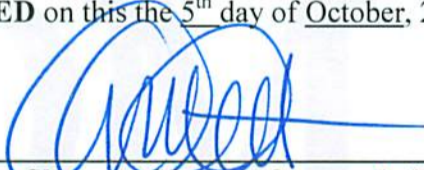

WHEREAS, libraries are a resource for economic vitality and education in today's ever-changing, fast-paced digital environment; and

WHEREAS, the Bulverde/Spring Branch and Tye Preston Memorial libraries serve more than 50,000 people in the unincorporated areas of Comal County through literacy, materials, outstanding programs, outreach and other services; and

WHEREAS, the Bulverde/Spring Branch Library has recently received almost $100,000 in funding from the Institute of Museum and Library Services and Texas State Library and Archives Commission to supplement library services for our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Comal County Commissioners Court, duly convened and acting in its capacity as the governing body of Comal County, proclaims October 1-7, 2017, as Power Up at Your Library Week and encourages all community members in Comal County to visit their library and participate by exploring an area of personal curiosity and innovation.

PASSED AND APPROVED on this the 5th day of October, 2017.

Sherman Krause, County Judge

Donna Eccleston, Commissioner Pct. 1

Scott Haag, Commissioner Pct. 2

Kevin Webb, Commissioner Pct. 3

Jen Crownover, Commissioner Pct. 4
