11. The Court may limit the number of attendees in a Zoom court hearing, particularly from the same law office, if that attendance interferes with the Court's Zoom link and slows down the electronic processing of the hearing.
12. Until Court begins, parties and their counsel will be in the Court's Waiting Room. Parties, their counsel and witnesses may be in the Waiting Room until their case is called; there are often multiple cases on a docket and it may take some time before the case is called.
