Voter registration deadline for midterm elections is Oct. 9

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, SEPTEMBER 21, 2018:

NEW BRAUNFELS — National Voter Registration Day is Tuesday, and the deadline for residents to make sure they are registered to vote in the upcoming midterm elections is Oct. 9.

To celebrate National Voter Registration Day, the League of Women Voters of the Comal Area will be at the Comal County Elections Center, 396 N. Seguin Ave., New Braunfels, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. this Tuesday to help register voters.

“We appreciate the efforts taken by the League of Women Voters to help make sure that anyone in Comal County who is eligible to vote gets registered and can cast their ballot,” said Elections Coordinator Cynthia Jaqua. “Anyone who will turn 18 years old by Election Day can register to vote in November’s election.”

Voters can make sure they’re registered for the Nov. 6 elections by visiting the Elections Center in person or by following the links on the Comal County elections website, votecomal.com. Registration forms must be postmarked no later than Oct. 9 to be valid for November.

Ballots in Comal County will include contested races for county clerk and Precinct 4 county commissioner on the local level; races for Texas governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, land commissioner, agriculture commissioner, railroad commissioner and seats in the state House and Senate; and races for U.S. Senate and both U.S. House seats that cover the county.

Early voting for the election begins Oct. 22 and ends Nov. 2.

Voting-precinct maps, early voting and Election Day times and locations, and in the near future sample ballots can be found at votecomal.com.
