Cannot? Can, sew! Workshops to teach residents new skills

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, JUNE 20, 2019:

NEW BRAUNFELS — Can you sew? Can you can? If not, the Comal County Extension Office is offering a pair of workshops to help residents pick up these longtime practices.

The sewing workshop will be 10 a.m. to noon Monday-Wednesday, June 24-26, and the canning workshop will be 1-4 p.m. Tuesday, June 25. Both workshops will be at the Mammen Family Public Library, 131 Bulverde Crossing in Bulverde, and are free of charge.

“Sewing on a machine and canning your own jellies and jams are quickly becoming a lost art, but they can save you time and money in the long run,” said Connie Sheppard, Comal County extension agent for family and community health. “These free workshops are a great way to get started.”

To register for the workshops, visit the Mammen Family Library website’s calendar, mfplibrary.libcal.com, and click on each event.
