

COMAL COUNTY

PUBLIC INFORMATION

Paul A. Anthony · 830-221-1110 · anthop@co.comal.tx.us

Contact:

Cynthia Jaqua (JAY-quay), Elections Coordinator
830.221.1352
jaquac@co.comal.tx.us

Friday is last day to vote early for Tuesday primary elections

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, FEBRUARY 26, 2020:

NEW BRAUNFELS — Comal County voters will select major-party nominees for the 2020 elections on Tuesday, March 3.

Early voting in the elections ends at 7 p.m. Friday, Feb. 28. Polls will be open in individual voting precincts from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. on Election Day; however, voters registered in Comal County can cast a ballot at any of 27 polling places throughout the county.

Through Tuesday, 9,171 Comal County residents had cast ballots in advance of Election Day, running ahead of the number and percentage of registered voters who turned out early in the 2016 elections. Roughly 8.6 percent of the county's 106,520 registered voters have a cast a ballot thus far.

Sample ballots, voting-precinct maps and vote center locations can be found at the Comal County Elections webpage, votecomal.com. Two early voting locations – Garden Ridge City Hall and the Comal County Elections Center – will not be available for voting on Tuesday; however, the four other locations open during early voting also will serve as Election Day vote centers.

New vote centers include Resolute Health fitness center in the Creekside area of New Braunfels, Cibolo Creek Community Church in Fair Oaks Ranch, and the clubhouses or community centers in three major subdivisions: Canyon Springs, River Chase and Vintage Oaks.

“This is our second election to feature county vote centers, where the county’s registered voters can cast their ballots at any open polling place in Comal County,” said Comal County Elections Coordinator Cynthia Jaqua. “We’re excited to continue offering this service for our voters, who can now vote wherever is most convenient for them.”

In this election, both Republicans and Democrats have contested primaries for president, U.S. Senate, U.S. House District 35, Texas railroad commissioner, Place 3 on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, and District 5 of the State Board of Education.

Republicans alone have contested primaries for Comal County Precinct 1 commissioner; tax assessor-collector; constables in Precincts 1, 3 and 4; and 433rd state district judge.

Democrats alone have contested primaries for U.S. House District 21, four seats on the Texas Supreme Court, and Place 4 of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

If no candidate receives more than 50 percent of the vote in any of the March 3 races, a primary runoff will take place May 26, for which the voter registration deadline will be April 27 and early voting will run May 18-22.

###

Comal County Public Information Office

830.221.1110

anthop@co.comal.tx.us

www.comalcountytexas.com