Comal County COVID-19 update: Two more patients recover

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, MARCH 31, 2020:

NEW BRAUNFELS — Comal County on Tuesday confirmed the recovery of two more COVID-19 patients, bringing the total of residents who have recovered from the disease to five.

With the addition of 21 conducted tests reported to the Office of Public Health since Monday morning, eight were negative, and 13 remain pending, for a total Tuesday morning of:

- 163 total tests
- 11 positive cases
- 96 negative tests
- 56 tests pending

With two deaths related to the coronavirus and five recoveries, four active COVID-19 cases remain in Comal County, two of them self-quarantined and two hospitalized out of the county.

To be considered recovered, a patient must meet the criteria established by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Those criteria can be found at:
