WHEREAS, this admirable program, which seeks to provide a learning experience for the whole child – comprising head, heart, hands and health – helps young Texans acquire knowledge, develop life skills and form attitudes enabling them to become self-directed, productive and contributing members of our society; and

WHEREAS, its more than 550,000 urban, suburban and rural youth participants, ranging in age from 8 to 19 years old, hail from diverse ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds and represent a cross-section of the state’s population; and
