Proclamation

Recognizing July 21-27, 2024 as Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Officers' week in Comal County

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals are an essential part of the justice system in Comal County; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals are dedicated and knowledgeable public servants at the forefront of public safety; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals engage in early identification and intervention of violating behavior to improve the justice system so there will be fewer crime victims; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals advocate for community and restorative justice; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals utilize data-driven and research-based decision making and employ incentive and sanction-based supervision; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals are committed to reducing revocations through application of evidence-based practices; and

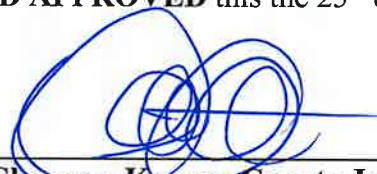

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals provide rehabilitative services by targeting the criminogenic needs of the offender population; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals help offenders overcome challenges so they may become productive, law-abiding citizens; and

WHEREAS, community supervision and corrections professionals seek to meet the needs of historically underserved areas in our county through collaboration with community-based resources.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Commissioners Court of Comal County does hereby recognize July 21-27, 2024 as Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Officers' Week, and encourage all citizens to honor the achievements of our local community supervision and corrections professionals.

PASSED AND APPROVED this the 25th day of July, 2024.

Sherman Krause, County Judge

Donna Eccleston, Commissioner Pct. 1

Scott Haag, Commissioner Pct. 2
