Proclamation

Congratulating and Recognizing the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club Centennial Day

WHEREAS, originally chartered as the Lions Club of New Braunfels on April 10, 1925, and later known as the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club, this organization has been an integral part of the community for 100 years, embodying the spirit of service and leadership; and

WHEREAS, Lions Clubs International is the world’s largest service club organization, with more than 1.4 million members in over 220 nations and geographic areas, united by the motto “We Serve;” and

WHEREAS, Lions Clubs International focuses on five core pillars of service: Vision, Hunger, Diabetes, Childhood Cancer, and Environment; and

WHEREAS, Lions Clubs International also supports disaster relief for communities affected by natural disasters, youth programs that encourage positive choices, and humanitarian aid such as medical supply donations, refugee assistance, and emergency support; and

WHEREAS, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club supports the Texas Lions Camp, which provides, at no cost, a transformative camping experience for children from across Texas with physical disabilities, hearing or vision impairments, and diabetes – empowering campers to achieve personal growth, build self-esteem, and embrace their abilities; and

WHEREAS, since its inception, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club has expanded its impact by sponsoring the formation of 25 other Lions Clubs across the Central Texas region, furthering the mission of service and strengthening communities throughout the area; and

WHEREAS, for a century, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club has exemplified the Lions’ mission by making a profound impact in the local community through service, leadership, and philanthropy; and

WHEREAS, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club has made a lasting impact on the community by contributing hundreds of thousands of dollars to local causes, funding its charitable work through dedicated volunteer efforts at community events such as the Comal County Fair and Wurstfest, among others; and

WHEREAS, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club supports vision-related initiatives, including the performance of tens of thousands of vision screenings in local schools and the donation of thousands of eyeglasses to community members in need; and

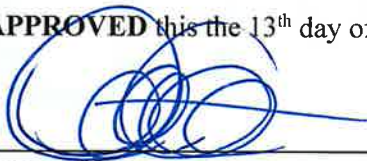

WHEREAS, beyond fundraising, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club provides countless hours of volunteer service to numerous organizations and events across the community, further demonstrating its commitment to making a positive difference in the lives of local residents; and

WHEREAS, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club also honors and commemorates important national holidays and events by raising flags around the city center, fostering a spirit of patriotism and community pride; and

WHEREAS, for a century, the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club has played a vital role in the development of community leaders, cultivating a legacy of civic engagement and philanthropy that continues to strengthen Comal County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Comal County Commissioners Court hereby gratefully honors and congratulates the New Braunfels Noon Lions Club on achieving 100 years of community service in Comal County.

PASSED AND APPROVED this the 13th day of March, 2025.
